Donor Confidentiality

Wellspring respects the confidentiality of our donors. Wellspring will not make your information public or pass it on to any other organization without first consulting you.

Your Donation in Perspective

By helping to build facilities and provide educational materials for the Wellspring Academy you are investing in the lives of people. The money you give will impact the lives of the Rwandan children that attend Wellspring Academy in a meaningful way. It will contribute to a sustainable school that is able to continually provide for orphaned and needy children to receive a great education. It will help give teachers the resources and training they need to be effective agents of change within the classroom.
